OUR ARGUMENT, UNCONTROLLED.

Since our advent into journalism, it has been our purpose to deal in facts and figures, regardless of the displeasure of our "supposed" contemporaries. We consult no man, counsel no lawyer, nor advise with any one as to what we shall or shall not discuss. We think for ourselves, and write independent of an assumed editor, or "A. G. Benton," and we trust that our constituency honor us for our independence; but it comes to us as a surprise that a man incapable of self-defense on his editorial staff, who descends to the level of writing mysterious letters under anonymous names in the attempt to slander a gentleman, should see in our conduct that which makes men odious, in our editorial comment, "billingsgate and opprobrium" for the man of evil practices, sees nothing but evil deeds in the acts of the righteous. In reference to our public conduct, the Herald of Wednesday contained the following:

Being reminded by a letter, whether it is true or not, that the issue of the 1st of March did not contain the usual amount of abuse for Judge Miller and urged to "scrap up all the questions of interest" which "the public expects of it," the top-line of the issue of the 1st of March, which it has been led to expect of the top-line sheet, it started the campaign by calling Judge Miller one of the vilest and most hostile names in the English language, and what is yet to come at its hands, the public can well guess.

It is here charged that we revealed in billingsgate in commenting on Judge Miller's course, which means, when analyzed, that we have been dealing in a manner not only discourteous, but odious. Kind reader, nothing could have been farther from our intention. We merely, in our argument on Judge Miller's political conduct, gave facts which the Herald and Judge Miller know, too well, are true, and which the Herald refuses to argue with us. In 1897, the Populist party met in convention and nominated Judge Miller as a Populist; he accepted the nomination as a Populist; went before the people as a Populist, endorsed by the Democrats; declared, in his various speeches over the county, that he was a Populist candidate for County Judge, endorsed by the Democrats; was voted for as a Populist; elected as a Populist and has, time and again, since '97, declared his fealty to the principles and doctrines of that organization. Judge Miller, aren't the foregoing statements true? The same question is submitted to the Herald "scribe." We insist that these statements are facts, admitted, both by Judge Miller and the Herald. As proof we submit the report of the speaking at McHenry in '99, as given by the Herald:

"Judge Miller made a speech at McHenry Monday night, as he had agreed to do in behalf of Mr. Stewart's candidacy for the legislature. Mr. Rogers, of THE REPUBLICAN, went to McHenry to hear what he had to say—and then wished he had not gone."

"Judge Miller said in opening his speech, after reading the above article, that the statements it contained were falsehoods and known to be false by the author when he wrote them. HE THEN STATED THAT HE WAS A POPULIST AND NO ONE HAD ASKED HIM TO VOTE OR SPEAK FOR MR. STEWART'S CANDIDACY."

In view of the fact, herein submitted, it was astonishing to us that his history should be denied, by Judge Miller himself, when the Democratic nomination for County Judge was sought by himself and a Democrat, however, it's true, as the following card will bear witness:

tucky, I HAVE BEEN AND AM NOW A DEMOCRAT. As I understand, the things necessary to constitute party affiliation in this country are first, allegiance to party platform, and second support of party nominees.

I had supposed that my political position as here defined, was clearly understood by my friends in this county, and I trust there can be no longer any room for misapprehension on this subject.

If nominated for County Judge by the Democratic convention which meets in Hartford next Monday, I expect to be nominated as a Democrat, and shall ask the nomination as a Democrat. I shall submit to the action of that convention and cheerfully support its nominee, whoever they may be, on the Democratic platform which that convention will adopt.

Very respectfully,
 March 1, 1901.
 J. P. MILLER.

We sincerely regret that a man cannot repeat history in this country, in a very simple manner, too, without incurring the ill will of a contemporary. But then we console ourselves, with the fact, that "A. G. Benton" is our contemporary. We may have gone too far and erred, in charging that our esteemed friend, the Judge, was a Populist in '96-7-8-9 and 1900. We admit that we should have had good authority before bringing such a grave charge against him, and as we thought we had good authority—his own words, deeds and acts, for instance. What man refused to accept his conviction as genuine in '97? He told us that he was a Populist then and now asks us to believe that he has been a Democrat all this time, while he has been fooling the people, but we must decline with regrets. If what he said in '97 was true, his confession above quoted is untrue and vice versa. We acknowledge that we referred to him as a political hermaprodite, but the noun was modified by the qualifying adjective "political," which referred only to his politics, as is known by all, save idiots. We venture the assertion that from his own record, as recorded in history, no man can truthfully say that he is a Democrat or that he is a Populist.

THE OBSERVER CAUSED IT.

The suggestion of our Beaver Dam "Observer" opened up an avenue for greater political enlightenment than we had first thought, but when the ball is once opened, the results are very much a matter of conjecture. Since our last issue, an old friend has given us some very valuable information on the subject of "perpetual office-seeking." It is a relic of '77 and '78, bearing the signature of the then County Clerk. This document not only substantiates "Observer's" reasoning that Mr. Smith is an office-seeker of the old school, but it charges him with having been engaged in selling out the Democratic party and this, too, by a true blue Democrat.

In 1877, Sam E. Hill carried this county 888 for State Senator over J. N. Phelps, Independent, while Dr. J. W. Meador, Republican, carried the county 53 over W. D. Coleman, Democrat, for Representative. It was thought very strange that Hill should carry the county 888 and Coleman lose it by 53 in the same election. Dr. Meador was a very popular gentleman and proved a formidable rival for Mr. Coleman, but popular alone could not have won in those days, for Republicanism was decidedly in the minority. It was learned after the election that Mr. Coleman had been sold out by A. B. Baird, a relative of Mr. Hill and Mr. T. J. Smith. The records show—the Dear Davis letter for instance—that the shrewdest Republican in the county was sent for who should "come in" to Hartford this evening and see us. This gentleman came, and went to "Bartlett's district to-morrow," the result of the election better tells what effect "coming to see us" had than we can possibly tell it: Hill, Democrat, for Senator, 140; Coleman, Democrat, for Representative, 97. On examining the poll books of Bartlett's precinct for the year '77, we find that 51 voters cast their ballots for Messrs. Hill and Meador. As Messrs. Baird and Smith did not disturb the "people here," Dr. Meador received a handsome vote in Hartford districts, while Mr. Coleman fell down considerably. That the public may understand just how the people vote in Hartford when "left to vote their sentiments," we give the official vote: S. E. Hill, 451; Coleman, 286. Thus we see Coleman was defeated by "Davie's coming to see us," and Mr. Smith "letting the people vote their sentiments in Hartford." Hartford's two precincts gave Hill 168 more than Coleman, while Bartlett gave Hill 43 more than Coleman.

The people should always have the right to vote without the interference of the political manipulator, but political history proves to us that Mr. Smith does not "leave the people free to vote their sentiments," when he is a candidate, neither does he intend that they shall vote their "sentiments" in the contest this fall, because he knows too well that his name would be "Dennis," without the proper adjustment of a large corruption fund.

Just who of his colleagues Mr. Smith will trade off in this contest, is a question too deep for speculation. That he will do whatever he considers necessary to elect "self," goes undisputed. We submit the following to substantiate our argument:

"Soon after Mr. Smith and myself declared ourselves as candidates, it came to be whispered about that Mr. Smith had been concerned in some way in a political 'sell out.' We, who are never concerned in corrupt bargains and sales, opened our eyes in astonishment to know that one Democrat had carried Ohio county by 800 majority, and that another, an old gray-headed man, a man of unimpeachable record, bearing the scars of many a hard-fought contest, was defeated for office. We said to ourselves, 'can such things be and not overcome us like a summer cloud.'"

"Murder will out; and at midnight grave-yards yawn, it is said, and in sheer self-defense Mr. Smith produced the following document:

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY, }
 August 5th, 1877. }

Mr. D. L. SMITH:
 Dear Sir—If you will go to the Bartlett's District to-morrow, in the interest of S. E. Hill against Phelps, and try and control the Republican vote of that District for Hill, we will on our part here make no fight against Dr. Meador, but leave the people free to vote their sentiments for Representative. If you consent to this, come into Hartford this evening and see us. We are very respectfully, &c.,

A. B. BAIRD,
 T. J. SMITH.
 "Dear Davie—I think we had better accept this on the part of J. W. Meador. Come to Hartford this evening. Your friend,
 J. W. MARKS.
 A. P. HUDSON.

"I give it without comment. Look at it, read it, scan it, take its mees and bound with a compass if you will, call to your aid the scholars of the land, use your own common-sense and judgment, and tell me whether or not here may be found the secret of Mr. Coleman's defeat?"

"It were seem strange that if these men (Powers and Howard) were not guilty, then no one deserves punishment for the killing of Mr. Goebel," says the Herald. Strange argument, but the real secret of that whole prosecution. It was first to "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party," but failing in this they, the conspirators, concluded to hang Howard and "pen" Powers, and in the estimation of the good people of Kentucky they have succeeded in damning themselves everlastingly. The better element of the Democratic party has become disgusted with the Tom Campbell and Judge Cantrill prosecution and long for the end of the infamous proceedings.

It would seem the part of prudence for the people to select such men for office as have good records. It would not be wise to entrust the finances of the people to the care of any man whose standing in society has been attained through questionable means. The people should look out for their own interest in Ohio county.

WERE it not for embarrassing the Democratic candidates, before the people of Ohio county, we would ask them this question: Are you willing to abide by the verdict of the people to be recorded on the fifth of next November? But under the existing circumstances, we defer the question for the present.

We confess that we may be slow of comprehension, and there are a few things that we cannot fathom. We, with good Democrats, are anxious to know what the head of the Democratic ticket is going to do with that foot he had on the Democratic party's neck in '97. Does he still hold it there?

We fail to understand why the small fries are centuring Funston for capturing Aguinaldo. Anything is fair in war, says the old adage, and since Aguinaldo would not fight, and could not run Funston, strategy was the only thing left the Americans and this, Funston employed as no other could.

"A LIFE-LONG Republican" (?) comes to Judge Miller's rescue this week in the Herald. This letter reminds us of the "A. G. Benton" letter, recently exposed by THE REPUBLICAN and we hardly think it deserves our notice, any more than to class it with "A. G. Benton's" productions.

We regret to learn that Mr. Ware has again attempted to take the life of Dr. Piner. They are both residents of Hopkinsville. Ware shot Dr. Piner last fall, inflicting a painful wound.

We do not understand why a man should desire to return to "Jail" after once experiencing the displeasures and humiliations attached thereto, but such is the case, we learn. (?)

Just how many Justices' Districts the new Commissioners will create, remains a matter of conjecture.

To the Colored People.

Next Sunday is to be indeed a great day at the colored Baptist church in Hartford. Great preparations have been made and there will be three services held during the day, 11:15, 2:30 and 8:30. There will be the very best of preaching throughout the entire day.

Let everybody who desires to enjoy a grand Easter be sure to go out and help in the grand rally that is especially for the pastor, Rev. J. H. May who leaves Monday for a trip to Tennessee, Alabama and Florida. Every body invited. LARKIN HINES, Assistant Pastor.

Ohio County to be Reapportioned.

OHIO COUNTY COURT
 M. F. Tichenor, &c., on application for reapportionment of the county in Justices' Districts:

This day M. F. Tichenor and others in open court filed notice and made application for the appointment of Commissioners to reapportion Ohio county into Justices' Districts and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the notice of the application has been duly given by posting copies of said notice at the court house door in Hartford, and in three public places in each Justices' District twenty days prior to and next before the application, it is ordered and adjudged that G. B. Likens, J. R. Shultz and S. C. Roberts, citizens of Ohio county, over twenty-one years of age, no two of whom reside in the same Justices' District, be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners to reapportion the County of Ohio into not less than three nor more than eight Justices' Districts pursuant to Section 1052, Ky. Statutes.

Said Commissioners will, after being sworn and within twenty days hereafter, lay off, fix and establish the boundary line of the districts and file in the office of the County Clerk a report in writing showing the boundary of each district with the estimated population of each. J. P. MILLER.

Gone to Rest.

On March 26, 1901, the grim monster of death visited the home of Mrs. John W. Hobbs, near Herbert, and snatched from them their little boy, Vernon C. Little Vernon, aged one year and ten months, died of whooping cough and pneumonia, after an illness of only a few days. The remains were buried at Mt. Etna in the presence of a host of friends and relatives. To father and mother and grandparents who loved him so well, would say, weep not, for the little one is in heaven—meet him there, where all is love, peace and joy. A.

Strength and Endurance

Are factors of the greatest success. No person can do full justice to himself without them. In no season of the year are they more easily exhausted than in the spring.

We need not discuss the reason for this one. It's enough to say there is here, and that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives strength and endurance, as thousands annually testify.

All persons having claims against R. W. Blankenship's estate will file same with me at Beaver Dam, Ky. on or before May 1, 1901, and have them properly proven.

Thus It Was and Thus It Is.

There is Jas. P. Miller, in the race for County Judge, Who longs to hold the honors, if he do have to fudge; But lying in his foot prints since 1889 Are the trails, cold and slimy, of the dreaded serpentine. A long time he's been hopin' fair fortune's smiles to meet In shape of 'ficial hon rs—just any thing he'd greet. Republican, Granger, Green-backer hath been, Populist, Democrat—just any thing to win.

But there's a turning point however in the worldly 'fairs of men, In the search for filthy lucre, or offices to win. Bonaparte and Hannibal, Goebel and Bryan too, All met the eternal fate of doom as you will have to do.

Alert, rough and ready, standeth Rogers in your way, Eager, anxious, standing panting to join you in the fray: And when the ideas of November shall again have rolled around, You will find yourself lying vanquished, lying vanquished on the ground

Grote, mustache, beard, he wore, The hat on the side of his head, His pockets rammed and crammed chuck full of dough. Fall of dough from the public crib.

"Sheriff, Clerk, Representative, door-keeper have I been And hardly am I satisfied yet, With your gracious consent County Clerk I'll be again And my pockets, from your coffers I'll stuff."

"Forty thousand I made from the office you gave And another thirty thousand I'd like, It is only my share of what there is there, My portion is all I'll take."

Oh no, Tom Jeff, the people will say, You've had a great share and your day, Mose Ragland a very fine man is he And by the eternal orb clerk shall be. Now prudence will say Tom Jeff come away.

Your attention your business demands, There is nothing more true than Ragland'll beat you, So you'd better come away while you can.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, unless out of the ear, which is only a temporary relief but an infirm condition of the mucous membrane.

Rheumatism R. T. Collins Leads Them All

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James K. C. of 707 Ninth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of sciatic rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having I filed twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I decided to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of R. T. Collins' specific for rheumatism, I decided, almost to my surprise, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to move around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. R. T. Collins' cure was so complete that my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health."

THE RIGHT THING TO PUT ON.

(Benson's Plaster is Pain's Master.)

From the natural impulse to "put something on" a painful spot all applications for the relief of pain have arisen.

The most successful have ever been pontios or plasters, and the best of these is Benson's Plaster.

No other has anything like the same power as a curative agent; it is highly and scientifically medicated, and its standard is advanced year by year.

Use Benson's Plaster for coughs, colds,
chest diseases, rheumatism, grip, neuralgia, kidney trouble, lumbago, and other ailments that make Winter a season of suffering and danger. It relieves and cures quicker than any other remedy.

Do not accept Capcium, Strengthening or Balladonna plasters in place of Benson's, as they possess none of its curative power.
Insist on having the genuine.

The people of every civilized land have testified for years to the superlative merit of Benson's Plaster; and 5,000 physicians and druggists of this country have declared them worthy of public confidence.

In official comparisons with others, Benson's Plaster has been honored with $100,000 highest award.

For sale by all druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on the receipt of 25c. each.
Accept no imitation or substitute.

Bearbury & Johnson, Mfg. Chemists, N. Y.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Our representative, Mr. C.
E. Smith, will call on you in a few days to settle for THE REPUBLICAN. You will confer quite a favor on us by promptly settling arrears and renewing your subscription.

All patrons will be permitted to settle for $1.00 per year.

Much to the surprise and profound regret of many admiring friends will be the news of the death of Miss Beulah Cook, Beaver Dam, which occurred yesterday at noon. She had been sick only a few days of pneumonia. Miss Beulah was cultured and refined and of a most pleasant and happy disposition, being regarded by all as a most genial and attractive young lady. She was especially loved for the stainless purity of her virtue.

Her untimely death is quite sad and to the home circle, indissolubly unfortunate. Interment will be in the Beaver Dam Cemetery at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Cockley.

The Board of Directors of the Hartford and Beaver Dam Electric R. R., Light and Power Co., met Monday and ordered the articles of incorporation filed and made the necessary arrangements to secure the right of way between Hartford and Beaver Dam, preparatory to beginning the construction of the road at an early date.
It seems to be a certainty that the road will be built at a very early date, and from the present outlook it will be a paying investment and will be of vast importance to the towns of Hartford and Beaver Dam, for as certain as the road is built the two towns will be practically united and the business interests will be greatly improved.
Everyone should encourage the enterprise in some way.

College Notes.

Judge Miller conducted General exercises Monday morning.

Miss Dena Woodward was a pleasant visitor at General exercises Tuesday morning.

Mr. Sam Wilson, Prentiss, and Mr.
Warren Lindley, City, were visitors at Exercises Wednesday morning.

Mr. Jim Duff is in school again after a long absence.

Mr. Marvin Miller, teacher in Ste-nography, has accepted a position in Louisville. Miss Bertie Williams has charge of his class.

Mr. Chester Bishop visited his parents, near Centertown, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Norma Brown, accompanied by Miss Beulah Barnett, visited her home near Centertown, Sunday, returning Monday.

Miss Wills Smith returned to school
this week after a long absence.

Mr. Cecil Stevens is in school again after a few days absence.

Misses Flora Taylor and Lizzie Greer visited their home near Adahburg, the fourth Saturday and Sunday in March.

Card of Thanks.

Fordville, Ky., Mar. 29.—We desire to express thanks to all kind friends who, by word or deed, endeavored to help us bear the affliction that visited our home March 14, 1901, and removed by death our dear boy, Jesse Conley. We would acknowledge especially our obligations to the Revs.
Jenkins and Ratcliff, for their words of comfort and hope, to the little boy pall bearers and to our many friends in Fordville, Irvington and Louisville, for beautiful flowers, all shall be cherished as proof of sincere friendship. J. J. and M. C. TILFORD.

A Painful Accident.

Mr. Alfred Ashby, of the Walton's creek community, got his leg broken last Friday evening at Centertown. He had been to mill and was arranging to return home when the accident occurred. He had led his horse to a log from which to mount and on stepping him down and rolling on his leg, breaking and crushing the bones below the knee in a horrible manner.
The best medical aid that could be procured was speedily summoned to adjust the unfortunate member. As Mr. Ashby has reached his three score and ten, the broken limb will, in all probability, be a source of great annoyance, and it is quite probable that he will never fully recover. He is a very prominent citizen, being one of the county's best farmers.

AGUINALDO TAKES OATH.

Filipino Swears to be Good and Accepts Authority of the United States.

Washington, April 2.—Secretary
Root has just made public the following cablegram received at the War Department this morning:

"Manila.—Adjutant General, Washington: Since arrival at Manila, Aguinaldo has been at Malacanang investigating conditions in archipelago. He has relied almost entirely upon the instructive advice of Chief Justice Arelan. As a result, to-day he subscribed and swore to the declaration on page 11 of my annual report.

"MACARTHUR."

The oath referred to is as follows:

"I hereby renounce all allegiance to any and all so-called revolutionary governments in the Philippine Islands and recognize and accept the supreme authority of the United States of America therein. I do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to that Government; that I will at all times conduct myself as a faithful and law-abiding citizen of said islands,
and will not, directly or indirectly, hold correspondence with or give intelligence to an enemy of the United States, nor will I harbor or protect such an enemy; that I impose upon myself these voluntary obligations without any mental reservations or purpose of evasion, so help me
God."

LAND FOR SALE.

About 400 acres of well timbered land in Ohio and Hancock counties, with about three miles of Fordville, Ohio county, Ky. For sale on easy terms, with good security.

H. C. WATKINS,
Owensboro, Ky.

Marriages.

Mr. W. M. Southard, Masonville, to Miss Lizzie Cook, Buford. Date of marriage, March 31.

Mr. C. M. M. McHenry, to Miss
Minnie E. Patterson, McHenry. Date of marriage, April 3.

Mr. Fred Miller, Hartford, to Miss May Brown, Whitesville. Date of marriage, April 3.

Scrofula is a bad thing to inherit or

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our gratitude to our many friends for their valuable aid rendered us in consequence of our recent misfortune, viz: the loss of our house by fire. We wish to say that whatever has been done for us has been carefully noted, and we appreciate it very highly.

Yours respectfully,
C. R. ASHBY AND WIFE.

The first Saturday in May will be "Trading Day" at Rockport, Ky. On that day you are requested to take to Rockport any thing you have for sale or trade, this call is for horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep, chickens, farming tools, wagons, buggies, farm products, any thing, every thing. Prominent buyers of horses and mules and of other live stock will be present, if you have ANYTHING that you do not need take it to Rockport that day and trade it for something you do need.
Do not go there empty handed and say you have so and so at home you will sell or trade, be certain to take what you want. It is just what you other fellow there with what you want. This "Day" is thoroughly advertised in Butler, Muhlenberg, Mc-Lean and Ohio counties.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food.
But what is the use of food,
when you hate it, and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you. New York.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists,
409 Pearl Street, New York.
50c and $1.00 all druggists.

ing a pleasure.

LOOK AT BARNES.

One friend says to another, when the subject of Clothes-buying is being discussed—look at Barnes. The boy says, "Mother," when he wants a new Suit, "look at Barnes." In the workingman's cottage, in the home of wealth, we are accorded the leadership by common consent, which we duly appreciate and ever strive to more fully merit. A look at Barnes to-day or to-morrow will show you many seasonable good things, other than is mentioned in this "ad."

"Woman's Work
is Never Done."

The constant care causes sleeplessness, loss of appetite, extreme nervousness, and that tired feeling. But a wonderful change comes when Hood's Sarsaparilla is taken. It gives pure, rich blood, good appetite, steady nerves.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Dr. Hunter's Response.

Legation of the United States,
Guatemala, March 23.

My Dear Master McDowell: I have received your very nice mail little letter of the 24th ult., requesting a few canceled postage stamps of Central America.

Agreeable to your request, you will please find herewith enclosed, all that I have at this time, of such stamps. I also enclose as a souvenir, a Guatemala "Guatilla," it being the smallest silver coin in circulation in the world.

If at any time I can further serve you, either at home or abroad, command me freely, as it is always a pleasure for me to encourage such enterprising youths as yourself.

With kindest and best wishes for your health and advancement, and trusting some day to have the pleasure of meeting you in "My Old Kentucky Home," I beg to remain,
Sincerely your friend,
W. GODFREY HUNTER.

The above is a letter to Master Mc-Dowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E.
Fogle, from our Minister, Dr. W.
Godfrey Hunter, at Guatemala, Central America. Dr. Hunter shows his true manliness in promptly responding to a letter of inquiry, thus encouraging such inquiring boys to strive upward and onward to greater usefulness. McDowell is getting up a collection of stamps, representing all the nations of the world.
